

Francisco Moza will replace Elena Madrazo in the Direction of AECID

01/11/2010

The appointment of Francisco Moza as the new Director of AECID is a personal decision of Trinidad Jiménez, current Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation. Moza's appointment must be approved by the Governing Council of the AECID as a proposal from the President of the Agency. For the moment, there is no date for the meeting of the Board.

Francisco Moza, born on December 24, 1975, has a BA in Economics from the UNED. He has been, among others, Chief of Staff of the Municipal Socialist Group of the City Council of Madrid.
